

The MultiCultural Center and Restorative Justice present an exclusive private screening for the campus community

BUILDING ACCOUNTABLE COMMUNITIES

with creativity IRL

Friday, May 3rd

3:00 pm

MCC Theater & Lounge

Private Film Screening

+ Discussion circles

+ Performance by JJ'88

Watch SONGS FROM THE HOLE, the visual album-documentary composed in prison. Hosted by Richie Reseda and JJ'88, practice its real-life tools to build self-accountability and accountable communities not based in shame or punishment. Enjoy live music by the film's writer, music artist, and main character, JJ'88.

