presents

A CALL for STUDENT ARTISTS

Collection of Resistance:
A Covid Series Exhibition

Open Submission Deadline: 9/7/2021

A year and a half into the pandemic, community spaces have been impacted. To bridge the gap between the adversities caused by COVID-19, the many on-going forms of systematic oppressions, and the human experience, the MultiCultural Center invites UCSB students to submit their art that emphasizes QTBIPOC experiences.

The MCC will host an in-person art exhibit to highlight and give voice to marginalized experiences as we navigate a pandemic and collectively pave the way to envision and create a new future that holistically centers community, belonging, and social justice art.

In the spirit of keeping ourselves, loved ones, and community safe, there will be 15 selected art pieces exhibited at the MCC Lounge, which will allow for safe and social distancing. For any reason that we are not allowed to gather, the exhibit will transition to on-line. There will also be gift card prizes for accepted submissions!
