

RESCHEDULED - NEW DATE
THIS THURSDAY FEB. 20TH

THE MULTICULTURAL CENTER PRESENTS

ART RECEPTION KABABAIHAN: ART THROUGH FEMINISM AND WOMEN'S WISDOM PINAYSPHERE

The MCC Winter 2025 Art Exhibition's theme is "Kababaihan: Art Through Feminism and Women's Wisdom," which celebrates the power of feminism and women's collective wisdom through art! The term "kababaihan" translates to "womanhood" or "femininity" in Tagalog. Featuring works from diverse artists in PinaySphere, "Kababaihan" explores themes of empowerment, resilience, and the transformative role of women in shaping our world. Join us to engage with inspiring art and conversations that honor women's stories and contributions.

THURS FEB 20TH
7-8PM * MCC LOUNGE

REGISTER ON SHORELINE:
<https://cglink.me/2dD/r2265716>

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411

👍 📷 🎵 @UCSBMCC

PINAYSPHERE

Jen V. Benitez is the Founder / Executive Director of nonprofit, PINAYSPHERE (pin-eye) for Filipina-American youth artists. She is a California-born and raised Filipina-American based out in Camarillo, CA. Originally from Oxnard, CA, she's lived in Long Beach and New York which has allowed her to expand her network throughout both coasts. She finds herself at the intersection of sacred wellness, creativity, and decolonization. She is passionate about projects that allow her to share her gifts & be of service to those in her community.