ASK THE SEXPERT

Dr. Mahinder Watsa is a popular 93-year-old sex advice columnist and feminist man living in a deeply patriarchal society in India. The column's brand of advice and humor has emboldened many to write in with their questions, even while a ban on comprehensive sex education in schools was adopted by a third of India's states. Ask the Sexpert is a story about the need for a safe space to talk about the body and about desire. Film will be presented with closed captioning.
