CUP OF CULTURE SERIES

Rigoberta Menchú: Broken Silence

“The celebration of Columbus is for us an insult,” says Rigoberta Menchú, a fierce advocate of indigenous peoples rights. This short film presents a profile of this extraordinary woman, whose life has become a symbol of resilience and power, not only of her own Mayan Quiché people, but of all the indigenous people of the Americas. It is a moving portrait of a self-taught woman who dreams of two things: a Guatemalan Congress integrating indigenous and nonindigenous men and women—and having a child “so I can plant my own seed, for better or worse.” 25 min, 1992

To uphold our weekly film screenings and discussions, we will be transforming our cup of culture series into a virtual setting. Every Wednesday, we will watch a documentary or movie as a collective and we will have a post-film discussion afterwards.
