

THE UCSB MULTICULTURAL CENTER PRESENTS
CUP OF CULTURE SERIES

Princess Mononoke

A beautifully realized tale of civilization versus nature, Princess Mononoke is a true epic by Japan's master animator Hayao Miyazaki. While protecting his village, the young warrior Ashitaka becomes afflicted with a deadly curse. To find a cure, he journeys deep into the Great Forest Spirit's realm where he meets San (Princess Mononoke), a girl raised by wolves. It's not long before Ashitaka is caught in the middle of a battle between iron-ore prospecting humans and the forest dwellers. He must summon the spirit-powers and all his courage to stop man and nature from destroying each other.
