

UCSB MULTICULTURAL
CENTER PRESENTS

An Evening of Poetry

with Disability
Activist

Therese Estacion

Therese Estacion is part of the Visayan diaspora community. She is an elementary school teacher and is studying to be a psychotherapist. Therese is also a bilateral below knee and partial hands amputee, and identifies as a disabled person/person with a disability. Therese lives in Toronto. Her poems have been published in CV2 and PANK Magazine, and were shortlisted for the 2021 Marina Nemat Award. Her first collection of poems, Phantompains, was published by Book*Hug in Spring 2021.

Thurs, Feb 17th, 6pm

Online Reading

Zoom: <https://ucsb.zoom.us/j/84834851588>

👍 🐦 📷 🍷 @UCSBMCC

