COMEDIANS with DISABILITIES ACT

Join us for an evening of laughter and learning at the MCC Theatre! This comedy act by Nina G and their co-comedian Mean Dave takes an intersectional approach in talking about issues that people with non-apparent disabilities encounter, and what it means to be an ally to one another. Their focus is on being open, getting needed support and moving toward Disability pride and goals. The A.S. Commission on Disability Equality will facilitate a Q&A following the performance.

Nina G is a stand-up comedian, author, and disability advocate. She is the author of Stutterer Interrupted: The Comedian Who Almost Didn't Happen and the children's book Once Upon an Accommodation: A Book About Learning Disabilities.

Mean Dave is a comedian from the Bay Area with a rock and roll style. With a wild, intelligent approach to material about modern day life, Mean Dave brings his critical message about addiction and disabilities to audiences around the world.
