

UCSB MultiCultural Center Presents

MOBILE ARCHIVES OF INDIGENEITY

Genesis, Methodology, and Application

DR. FLORIDALMA BOJ LOPEZ

LECTURE

MON. MAY 20TH

12:30-1:45PM

MCC THEATER

Co-sponsored by:

The Central American Studies Working Group

In her talk, Dr. Floridalma Boj Lopez will discuss the origins of Mobile Archives of Indigeneity (MAI) as an analytic that emerged from an engagement with Critical Indigenous Studies and her personal lived experience as a member of the Maya diaspora from Guatemala. She will also discuss the ways that MAI requires flexible methods that prioritize community centered projects and discuss how MAI is applied in her upcoming monograph. She will specifically examine how Maya textiles act as a Mobile Archive of Indigeneity in the diaspora and consider the layered gender, historical, political, and economic context of the textiles.
