

RESILIENT LOVE

NAVIGATING WITH(OUT) INSTRUMENTS:

risk &
vulnerability,
reckoning
and healing,
creative
excavation &
collective joy

traci kato-
kiryama
(they/she)

REGISTER ON SHORELINE:
[https://cglink.
me/2dD/r2223495](https://cglink.me/2dD/r2223495)

Join artist, author, organizer, traci kato-kiryama (they+she) in a reading from Navigating With(out) Instruments—poetry, micro essays, notes to self. tkk will read and speak on various themes from their book—from friendship & solidarity, to reclaiming pasts & visioning self-determined futures, to queerness & love, to creative process, and being director/co-founder of the longest running Asian American free public arts series in the country, Tuesday Night Cafe. tkk's reading and talk will be followed by a conversation with graduate students and a Q&A with the audience. Books and signing will be available at the event. Hanging out afterward is encouraged!

TUESDAY, NOV 14TH, 2023

Workshop: 12-1:30pm, Keynote: 6-7:30pm, MCC Theater

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411