

Activist Scholar in Residence

MIRROR MEMOIRS

Trauma, Healing and Surviving as Tools for Social Justice

Amita Swadhin & Jaden Fields

Amita Swadhin (they/ them) is the Founding Co-Director of Mirror Memoirs, working to end violence against young people.

Jaden Fields (he/ him) is an organizer, cultural worker, and educator dedicated to healing-centered spaces for marginalized communities.

WEDNESDAY
MAY 24, 2023, 5:30-9PM

5:30-7:30pm Screening:
“Transmutation: A Ceremony,”
MCC Theater
7:30-9pm Dinner and
Healing Circles, MCC Lounge

This theater project breaks secrecy and isolation to illuminate the needs and wisdom of survivors imagining a different world. From 7:30-8pm, food will be served in the MCC Lounge after the screening. From 8-9pm, Amita and Jaden will facilitate healing circles to process the theater project and its insights, and what we need to do collectively to end rape culture. There will be one circle for survivors of sexual violence and one circle for allies and accomplices.

Day 1: <https://cglink.me/2dD/r2088314>

THURSDAY
MAY 25, 2023
12-1:30PM

Keynote: “Mirror Memoirs:
Leave No Survivor
Behind,”
MCC Theater

In this public lecture, Amita and Jaden explore intersectional and abolitionist approaches to the question, “How do we co-create a world without child sexual abuse?”

Day 2:
<https://cglink.me/2dD/r2088317>

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411

@UCSBMCC