

UCSB MULTICULTURAL CENTER PRESENTS

OPEN MIC AND AN EVENING OF SELF-EXPRESSION

HOSTED BY LADY DANE
FIGUEROA EDIDI

The MCC hosts a quarterly open mic for Black, Indigenous, and People of Color especially to artistically express themselves using creative outlets including spoken word, poetry, and music. All are welcome to attend and participate! This quarters open mic will be hosted by Lady Dane Figueroa Edidi. Dubbed the Ancient Jazz Priestess of Mother Africa, Lady Dane Figueroa Edidi is a Black Nigerian, Cuban, Indigenous, American Performance Artist, Author, Educator, Speech Writer, a Helen Hayes Award winning Playwright (Klytmnestra: An Epic Slam Poem (Helen Hayes Award 2020), For Black Trans Girls..., Ghost/Writer, The Diaz Family Talent Show, Quest of The Reed Marsh Daughter, The Dance of Memories), Advocate, Dramaturg, a 2x Helen Hayes Award Nominated choreographer (2016, 2018) and co-editor/co-Director of the Black Trans Prayer Book.

THURSDAY
MAY 20
6PM PST

Online Open Mic
Zoom link: [https://ucsb.
zoom.us/j/84860062430](https://ucsb.zoom.us/j/84860062430)

