

YAYA BEY

Yaya Bey is one of R&B's most exciting storytellers. Using a combination of ancestral forces and her own self-actualization, the singer/songwriter seamlessly navigates life's hardships and joyful moments through music. Bey's new album, Remember Your North Star, captures this emotional rollercoaster with a fusion of soul, jazz, reggae, Afrobeat, and hip-hop that feeds the soul. Bey's ability to tap into the emotionally kaleidoscopic nature of women, specifically Black women, is the essence of the entire album. With themes of misogynoir, unpacking generational trauma, carefree romance, parental relationships, women empowerment, and selflove, Bey proves that the road to healing isn't a linear one—there are many lessons to gather along the journey.

Friday,
Feb 24, 2023
7:30-9pm
MCC Theater

Register on Shoreline
[https://cglink.me/
2dD/r1950769](https://cglink.me/2dD/r1950769)

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411

@UCSBMCC

