

The MultiCultural Center presents
Cup of Culture

A special film screening event featuring quwa' and Saving the Foothills

quwa' & Saving the Foothills

Land Back and Restoration in Santa Barbara

MARIANNE PARRA, AND ROBYNE REDWATER
WITH PROFESSOR SUMMER GRAY, MODERATOR

In remembrance of Chumash elder Ernestine Ygnacio-De Soto

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 25

5:00 PM

MCC THEATER

Two documentaries highlighting Chumash history, land preservation, and the contemporary Land Back movement. quwa' explores the story of a lost Chumash island in Goleta Slough, followed by Saving the Foothills, which chronicles the community effort to protect San Marcos Foothills from development.

A Q&A discussion, moderated by Professor Summer Gray, will follow the screenings with Chumash community members Marianne Parra, and Robyne Redwater.

Afterwards, enjoy dinner and conversation with fellow attendees.

Co-Sponsors: AiiCRC and AiiSA

Register at Shoreline

<https://cglink.me/2dD/r2270370>

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411

@ucsbmcc