

"ALL RIGHTS FOR ALL!"

FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT
JUNE 1866

You're invited to Frederick Douglass' birthday party! Help us celebrate Douglass Day and Black History Month by participating in a national transcribe-a-thon.

UC SANTA BARBARA
Library

The MultiCultural Center and UCSB Library present

DOUGLASS DAY 2026

COMMUNITY EVENT & TRANSCRIBE-A-THON

Featuring the Colored Conventions Project

FRIDAY FEBRUARY 13, 11 AM
MCC LOUNGE

Co-Sponsors: Department of English,
Office of Black Student Development,
African Diasporic Cultural Resource Center,
UCSB Library

You'll learn how to bring 19th century Black history to life by transforming digitized Colored Conventions documents into legible text. There will be birthday cake, music, and more!

Just bring your computers, yourselves, and a friend.
(UCSB affiliates can also check out a laptop at UCSB Library.)

No experience necessary. Free and open to the public.
Opening remarks will be made at the start of the event and guests are welcome to drop-in as their schedule allows.

Registration is recommended, but not required.

<https://douglassday.org/ucsb/>

For more information or assistance in accommodating people of varying abilities contact the MultiCultural Center at 805.893.8411

@ucsbmcc