

The MultiCultural Center presents

STUDENT MOVEMENTS AND THE NEOLIBERAL UNIVERSITY

TUESDAY
OCT 22ND
5:00 PM

MCC LOUNGE

Charmaine Chua
Assistant Professor
Global Studies

This discussion will take stock of the history of student movements in and against the University of California.

Dr. Charmaine Chua will cover a short history about the public university and its neo-liberalization over the last half-century, as well as how the university represses and seeks to discipline student movements. We will then have a discussion about student movements on campus using structured questions about ongoing campus campaigns for social justice.
