

The MultiCultural Center, A.S. CODE, and Disabled Students Program present

DISABILITY JOY

FROM DROWNING TO DREAMING: REDEFINING DISABILITY IN ATHLETICS

THURS APRIL 17TH 5-7:30 PM • MCC THEATER & LOUNGE

Join us in redefining disability athletics with paralympic swimmer, Jamal Hill, and UCSB students, Emily Libal, Yao Yao Xiao, and Ashlyn Shelton. During this panel, Jamal will uncover his personal journey on confronting and overcoming the shame associated with his disability. Swimming became a pathway to self-acceptance, mental well-being, and empowerment. Through his resilience, Jamal hopes to inspire audiences to face their insecurities and embrace their full potential. Additionally, Yao Yao, Emily, and Ashlyn will talk about how their disabilities have shaped their identities as student athletes. The panel will be followed by a reception in the MCC Lounge where guests can interact and share a meal with our guest speakers.

FREE FOOD FROM KYLE'S KITCHEN

CLUB SWIM AT UCSB

Paralympic swimmer, Jamal Hill, and UCSB students, Emily Libal, Ashlyn Shelton, and Yao Yao Xiao

Co-Sponsors:
A.S. CODE and Disabled Students Program

Register on Shoreline:
<https://cglink.me/2dD/r2266384>

