Show & Tell

PUBLIC SPEAKING IN COMMUNITY

Join us for Show & Tell: Public Speaking in Community—a relaxed, community gathering where graduate students can share something they've created, researched, or experienced over the summer. Whether it's a project, story, or idea you're passionate about, this is a space to practice public speaking in a supportive environment while connecting with peers.

Build confidence,
community, and communication skills in a fun
and affirming atmosphere!

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25
12-1:30 PM • MCC LOUNGE

Co-sponsors: Graduate Division and Graduate Student Association
